

THE END OF THE ROAD

Fengyun Jiao

Chapter 24

How many of them
Eden's people
people of the world
quality of life

A long time ago,

there was a pretty smart girl.

She was considered as a great asset to this country and excelled in biology.

Thanks to the government, she was able to further her studies in the United States.

However,

her intelligence knew no bounds.

She always felt that something was missing.

Perhaps due to her curiosity, or perhaps because she thought that it would fill her emptiness...

she had a child.

It's different.

It's much more different.

This isn't what I was expecting.

I've studied biology and science all my life, but I can't explain my emotions.

How this "life" is so wonderful,
so precious to this world.

But alas,

the happiness that I so craved...

did not last long.

But you
don't know...

the people
you're dealing with...
